

MAORI & NEW ZEALAND PATTERNS

CEIP ELS TIL.LERS
ART&CRAFTS WORKSHOPS
IN PRIMARY EDUCATION

The Pacific Ocean is the largest ocean in the world.

NEW ZEALAND

The islands in the South Pacific were formed by volcanoes thousands of years ago.

New Zealand is made up of several dozen small islands and two main islands.

The first people to live in New Zealand were known as the Maori. Maori were hunters.

In 1769, a British explorer named Captain James Cook landed in New Zealand. He realized that New Zealand has good land for farming.

In 1907 New Zealand became a nation with its own elected government.

The flag of Aotearoa (Te Hakiuatahi)

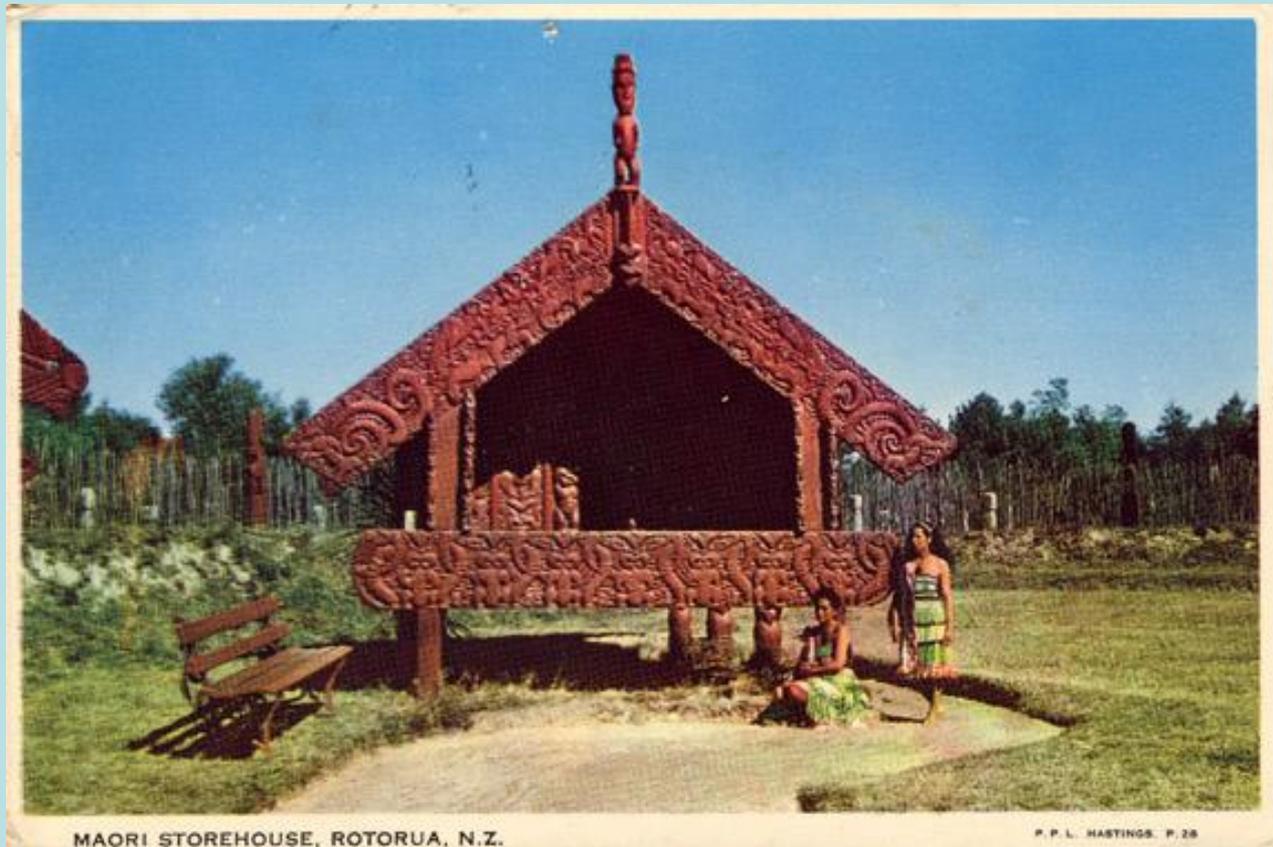

The flag of Aotearoa (Te Hakiuatahi)

The flag of the Maori Nation

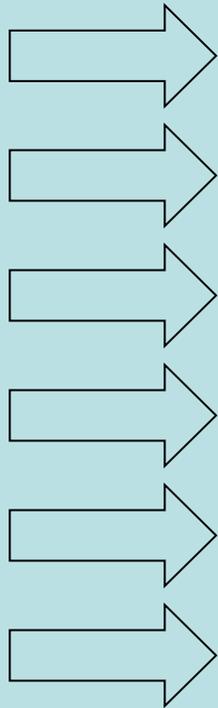

Modern-day Maori in New Zealand are adapting to the modern world.

Whare nui: Is a meeting house with ornate carvings(poupou)
And weavings (tukutuku)

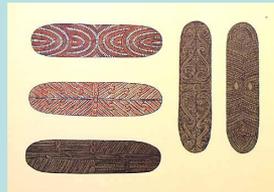

MAORI ART

Maori people had developed their particular art in many fields:

carving

sculpture

painting

weaving

jewelry

Human body

Watangi pattern

Carving (poupou)

Weaving(tukutuku)

Rorotua pattern

Wallhangings patterns (tukutuku)

Wallhangings patterns (tukutuku)

Wallhangings patterns (tukutuku)

LE'TS TRY TO DESING
SOME TUKUTUKU PATTERNS