Kerry held up something round and shiny. It gleamed in the sun.
'It's a coin!' she said. 'It looks really old.'
'Let's take it to Mr Hart,' said Omar.
'Then he'll put it in for the competition. You never know, you might win.'

The local newspaper was running a competition for schools in the area. The child who found the oldest and most exciting treasure would win a trip for two to Space Fun Park.
'You can find buried treasure anywhere,' the newspaper had said.
